Want to be more involved with the Fairfax County Police Department? Want to provide a valuable service to your community, and be more informed about county issues and laws at the same time?

Consider joining your local FCPD Citizens' Advisory Committee (CAC). Meetings are held at your police station each month at 7:00 p.m.

CACs enhance communication between residents and the FCPD and offer residents a chance to dialogue with members of their local police districts. Members are kept informed about significant safety matters in their neighborhoods, and are encouraged to bring any issues or questions to the attention of local police commanders.

CAC Background and Purpose

In 1979, the Fairfax County Police Department established a program to enhance its ability to communicate with and better serve the community.

This program took the form of advisory groups, known as Citizens' Advisory Committees (CACs), comprised of citizens representing a cross-section of the various neighborhoods of Fairfax County. Each of the eight police stations formed its own CAC to work hand-in-hand with the station commander on issues confronting that particular district. The CAC meets on a monthly basis, and meetings are open to the public.

The purpose of the CAC is to:

1. Provide a forum for obtaining citizen input about the delivery of police services;
2. Provide a formalized process that will facilitate citizen and community cooperation with the police and;
3. Identify specific and potential problem areas concerning the police.

The West Springfield CAC supports the West Springfield Police District located at 6140 Rolling Road.
